Review

OUR NEW HOME

We're proud to announce that the good folks out at the Puyallup Fairgrounds have made the Flower and Garden building available to us. It is on the North side of the Fairgrounds with the entrance on 9th Avenue SW across from the Red Gate. It's 9,000 square feet and should be plenty of space to hang paintings, show off artifacts and have a great area for teaching!

GALA HOEDOWN

The Board of Directors is planning a real shindig to get the center off on the right foot and naturally you're invited! So, mark your calendar for June 22nd. That's the date for the "Gala Hoedown" and I'll be telling you more about it soon.

Paint Like a Cowboy™

We've been working real hard and our brand new "How to Paint" video is ready for you to pick up. And, surprise, it's entitled, "Paint Like a Cowboy™". Now, I've got to admit that at first I wasn't keen on all that TV stuff. Some of those folks are awful bossy, but now that we're finished, I'm pretty proud to admit this has got to be one of the easiest to follow painting videos I've ever seen. We have plans for a whole series of these how-to-paint videos. This first video is from our own Western Heritage Center Productions. "Paint Like a Cowboy™" provides step-by-step instruction on how to do a Palette Knife Painting. Now, just wait a minute before you make up your mind. It's much easier than it sounds. I mean easy! This tape is about an hour long, has lots of close ups and step-by-step hints and tips. Best of all, we have two of my students painting right along with me, so you can see how easy it will be to do it yourself. As we've promised you, this video like all of our products, will be available to members of our Center at a special price.

*Now hold on a minute.
Don't go putting this letter down. I'm just barely getting to the good stuff...*

BOOK RELEASE

As part of our grand opening celebration, we're collecting submissions for: Fred Oldfield's Book of "Cowboy Humor and Wisdom" to be published at Christmas time. Get in on the fun! Send us your favorite Western stories, (with attribution if they've been published). For every story we accept, the writer - that's you - will receive two copies of the published book and be honored at the gala book signing party at the Western Heritage Center.

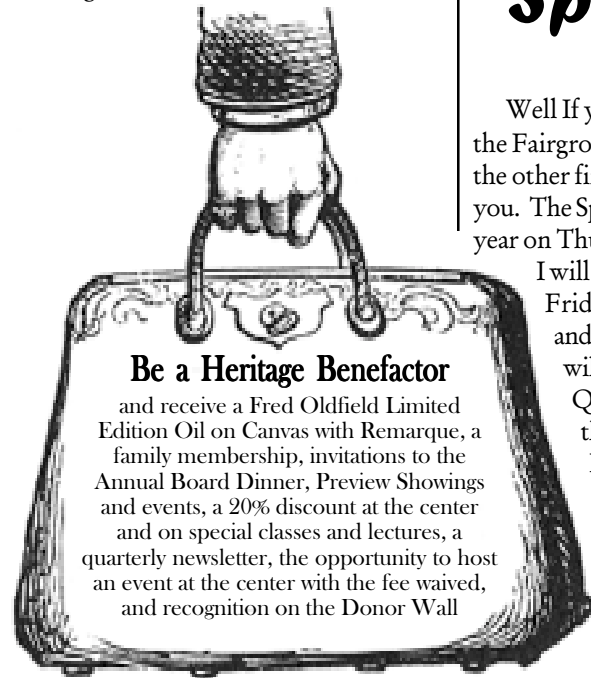

Send your favorite stories to The Fred Oldfield Western Heritage Center, 8103 Steilacoom Blvd. SW #18, Lakewood, WA 98498 or e-mail to Oldfield@harbornet.com.

WHAT CAN YOU DO?

Volunteers will be crucial to the operation of the Center. So please don your boots and jeans and come on down and tell folks about the Old West, or stuff envelopes, or whatever you can offer. Just sign up to be a Volunteer and it will be like the old Barn Raisings - all of us working together to succeed!

SHARE YOUR TREASURES

All of us at the Center will be happy to help you find a new home for some of your treasured artifacts. You know what I mean, antique wagon wheels, granddad's farm tools, Native American baskets, all just like me - old, with a lot to still teach the youngsters. The Heritage Center is a non-profit outfit so you can receive a tax deduction for any donations you make to it. We'd also be real proud to have you loan any of your treasures to us for limited showings.

MEMBERSHIPS

We want you all to be members of the Heritage Center. I wasn't so sure about all this fuss at first but now I'm real excited. Excited because I realize it's about the kids! The Center will be a place you can bring your kids and grandkids to see original artwork, mine and others. They will be able to see artifacts that will show them about life in earlier times. If they so desire we'll teach them, as well as you, to paint, carve and sculpt. We'll have lots going on, so you need to be part of the Heritage Family.

Spring Fair

Well If you want to come on down to the Fairgrounds and visit with me and all the other fine artists we'd be happy to see you. The Spring Fair starts a day early this year on Thursday at 3pm. The artists and I will be doing our Quick Draws on Friday at 6 pm, Saturday at 3 pm and Sunday at 2 pm. The Auctions will be immediately following the Quick Draws. As always we're in the 4-H Building across from the Blue Gate. Come on down and have some fun while you "Do the Mini Puyallup!"
